

PRESS RELEASE

LABLAW shortlisted for The Lawyer European Awards 2017

Milan 26/1/2017- We are delighted to announce that LABLAW has been shortlisted for The Lawyer European Awards 2017, in the categories: Law firm of the year: Italy and European specialist law firm of the year. The awards ceremony will take place in London on 16th March at Grange St Paul's Hotel.

In ten short years since the foundation of the firm, thanks to their passion and proven expertise for employment law and industrial relations, the founding partners, Luca Failla and Francesco Rotondi, have realized their ambitious project for LABLAW to become one of the 'go-to' Italian firms for businesses with a domestic or international workforce. With more than 60 highly specialised lawyers in 6 offices around Italy, LABLAW prides itself in delivering practical and commercial legal advice in both advisory and contentious matters.

The appointment of partner Sharon Reilly in 2013 to head up LABLAW's international practice and Luca Failla's appointment as an Officer of the IBA Employment & Industrial Relations Committee, as well as many international customers usually assisted by LABLAW, has facilitated and consolidated the firm's position as the preferred legal partner to global companies, advising them on some of the most important transactions in the life cycle of the business.

"Having won this prestigious award in 2011 and to be in the running again this year is recognition that LABLAW is an important player in the international employment law field and we are able to service our clients around the globe, thanks also to our international alliance L&E Global (<http://leglobal.org/>), which boasts over 1500 employment lawyers around the world", says founding partner Luca Failla.
